- Business Book Club Thursday, March 1 @ 7pm
How to Win Friends and Influence People by Dale Carnegie. A self-help book published in 1936. Over 30 million copies have been sold world-wide, making it one of the best-selling books of all time. In 2011, it was number 19 on the Time Magazine's list of the 100 most influential books.
- Warner Book Group Thursday, March 8 at 7pm
The Leavers by Lisa Ko. One morning, eleven-year-old Deming Guo's mother, an undocumented Chinese immigrant named Polly, goes to her job and never comes home. Deming is eventually adopted by two white college professors who move him from the Bronx to a small town. This is a poignant story of a boy who struggles to find his footing in a new world. It's also an unflinching look at the difficult decisions a mother faces.
- Lunch Can Be Murder: Mystery Book Group Tuesday, March 20 at 11:00am
NEW TIME! Meet at 11am, in Room R by Reference desk. Bring your lunch!
And Then There Were None by Agatha Christie. Ten houseguests, trapped on an isolated island, are the prey of a diabolical killer. A famous nursery rhyme is framed and hung in every room of the mansion. Who has choreographed this dastardly scheme? And who will be left to tell the tale?
